- Monday 20th July 2026

- INSET Days

Students should attend for 190 days (380 sessions). Full attendance is vital for your child's educational progress, there is an overwhelming connection between those students who are frequently absent that go on to underachieve in examinations. Leave will not be granted in term time for any reason, the only exception being one day to attend a funeral in this country. Absence requests must be made to the Headteacher by submitting an absence form which is available from the school office.

Schools which close for elections are required to extend the summer term or coincide it with an INSET Day. Therefore the INSET days specified above are subject to change. Any change in INSET day will be notified to you via the school blog with plenty of advance notice for you to prepare for this.
